Do you live with or know of an undesexed companion animal? Perhaps it's your pet? Or a friend? Or a local stray?

Did you know spring is breeding season for all animals? This is the time of year where animals breed prolifically, only to end their short lives in council pounds.

This is the time, if you haven't already done so, to desex your pet and encourage all your friends to desex theirs!

If you know of any local strays, you should also have them desexed. The consequence of not doing so will guarantee that they will have unwanted litters.
